

CHAPTER 17. FIRE DEPARTMENT

17. FIRE DEPARTMENT

17.01. Personnel. The fire department of the city shall consist of one chief and persons designated as deputy chiefs, battalion chiefs, captains, mechanics, fire marshal, assistant fire marshals, motor operators, fire fighters, administrative services managers and support staff in such number as the common council may designate by resolution from time to time. (3893, 10/20/08)

17.02. Supervision. The employment, promotion, discharge and suspension of all officers and employees of the fire department shall be under the control and supervision of the fire civil service commission for the city, created pursuant to resolution of the council duly passed and adopted on March 2, 1931, and amended March 30, 1931, in accordance with chapter 420 of the Minnesota Statutes.

17.03. Fire Prevention Bureau. The fire code shall be enforced by the bureau of fire prevention which is hereby established in the fire department and which shall be operated by the fire marshal under the supervision of the chief of the fire department. (3893, 10/20/08)

Subd. 2. Temporary Assignment. Subject to the rules and regulations of the Rochester fire civil service commission, the chief of the fire department may temporarily assign to the fire prevention bureau such members of the fire department as may from time to time be necessary.
